Extraordinary Journeys welcomes travelers 'Down Under' with a new itinerary: Vibrant Neighborhoods, Culture and Wildlife of Sydney and Southern Australia.

The 12-day, 11-night Australian tour takes participants behind-the-scenes of Sydney's emerging and established neighborhoods, to the unspoiled beauty of Kangaroo Island, on an extravagant food and wine experience in the renowned Barossa Valley in a vintage 1962 Daimler, and ends with an African-style Australian Outback safari in the picturesque Flinders Ranges.

Whether escorted by private guides or independently driving around in a provided rental car, travelers will have access to local personalities and experts (an Extraordinary Journeys signature) to provide optimal immersion in the destination.

The new Vibrant Neighborhoods, Culture and Wildlife of Sydney and Southern Australia journey features some of the continent's most iconic destinations and includes flexible city and outdoor adventures.

Additionally, depending on the time of year, guests have the opportunity to include the Adelaide Festival (first two weeks in March), Vivid Sydney (May 25-June 16), or Dark Mofo in Tasmania (June 15-24) in their itinerary. Extensions to Wollan Valley, Lizard Island or Uluru are also recommended.

Vibrant Neighborhoods, Culture and Wildlife of Sydney and Southern Australia highlights:

Four Nights—Pier One, Sydney

Based at Pier One Sydney, travelers will get to know the city with an introductory small group tour and a lunch cruise on Sydney Harbour. Guests will then spend the remaining time in the city deciding between insider art and food walking excursions including The Cannery, Barangaroo, and Tramsheds; tours with an acclaimed Aboriginal Guide; surfing lessons on Bondi or Manly Beach; climbing the Harbour Bridge and dinner and a behind-the-scenes tour of the Sydney Opera House.

Two Nights—Southern Ocean Lodge, Kangaroo Island

While on Kangaroo Island, travelers will have the opportunity to explore the Cape du Couedic Lighthouse, Remarkable Rocks, Admirals Arch and a fur seal colony. Based at the world-class Southern Ocean Lodge, guests will also learn about the local wildlife (kangaroos, wallabies, sea lions, etc.), the maritime heritage, and stunning coastal landscapes that make up the island.

Two Nights—The Louise, Barossa Valley

Drive through the legendary Barossa Valley to The Louise. Guests will be escorted on a private tour in a classic air-conditioned 1962 Daimler with award-winning wine guide, John Baldwin. Wine country highlights will include blending your own wine at Penfolds, a private tasting of super luxury premium Barossa wines at Roennfeldt Road cellar door, lunch at Vintners Restaurant and a tasting experience at Seppeltsfield—a living, national treasure dating back to 1851 and home of the world's only continuous collection of fortified wines dating back to 1878.

Two Nights—Arkaba Station, Flinders Ranges

Based in an exclusive 10-guest 1850s homestead, adventurers will embark on unique African-style safari game experiences in the Australian Outback. Activities will include 4X4 game drives, nature hikes, visits to ancient rock drawings and stargazing. An awe-inspiring 30-minute scenic small plane flight over Wilpena Pound will conclude a visit to the Flinders Ranges.

One Night—Mayfair Hotel, Adelaide

The penultimate day in Australia will be spent exploring the wine and festival capital of Australia. Combining charming historic buildings, wide streets, trendy shops and street cafes, Adelaide welcomes travelers to experience the destination on foot. A visit to Adelaide is not complete without a tram ride to the beach, or a visit Aboriginal Culture Centre, and the Adelaide Central Market.

One Night—Pier One, Sydney

Fly to Sydney and transfer to Pier One Hotel in the heart of Sydney.

The Vibrant Neighborhoods, Culture and Wildlife of Sydney and Southern Australia itinerary is priced at $9,850 per person and includes transfers and flights within Australia. All meals and drinks are included at Southern Ocean Lodge and Arkaba Station. Other meals as indicated in the full itinerary, here.
